20. (1) At the polling station there shall be set up one or more voting compartments in which electors can record their votes screened from observation.
- (2) At the polling station a sufficient number of ballot boxes, copies of the electoral roll and ballot papers shall be provided.

Regulating the entry of electors at the Polling Station

21. The Presiding Officer shall regulate the number of electors to be admitted at anyone time inside the polling station and shall exclude there from all persons other than the polling officers, the candidates and their election agents (one polling agent of each candidate).

Appointment of polling Agent: -

22. (1) The appointment of a Polling Agent shall be made by the Candidate in Form F and shall be handed over to the Polling Agent for production at the polling station or the place fixed for the poll.
- (2) Immediately before The commencement of the poll the Presiding Officer shall demonstrate to the polling agent and other persons present, that the ballot box is empty, and

- (3) the ballot box shall then be closed, sealed, and secured and placed in full views the Presiding Officer and the polling agents, the ballot box shall, however, be sealed in such a manner that the slit for the insertion of the ballot paper therein remains open.

Identification of Electors

23. (1) The Presiding Officer may employ at the polling station such persons as he thinks fit to help in the identification of the electors or to assist him otherwise in taking the poll.
- (2) Each Registered Graduate shall be issued an Identity Card by the Registrar on payment of appropriate fee to be determined by the Executive Council from time to time. The photograph of the Registered Graduate, duly attested by the Registrar shall be affixed on the Identity Card.
- (3) As each elector enters the polling station, the Presiding Officer or the Polling Officer authorized by him in this behalf, shall check the electors name and other particulars with the relevant entry in the electoral roll, registration number and the name of elector.
- (4) In deciding the right of a person to obtain a ballot paper the Presiding Officer or the Polling Officer as the case may be, shall overlook merely clerical or printing errors in any entry in the electoral roll if he is satisfied that such person is identical with the elector to whom such entry relates.

Issue of ballot paper to electors at the place of Poll: -

24. At the time of issuing a ballot paper to an elector at the place of Poll the Polling Officer shall obtain the signatures of the elector on the counter-foil of the Ballot Paper.

Voting Procedure at the place of poll: -

25. The elector on receiving the ballot paper shall forthwith:
- (a) Proceed to the voting compartment;
- (b) There make a mark on the ballot paper as provided in paragraph 17, fold the ballot paper so as to conceal his vote;
- (c) Insert the fold ballot paper into the ballot box and quit the polling station.

Closing the Poll: -

26. The Presiding Officer shall close the polling station at the hour fixed in that behalf under Statute 5 of this Statute and shall not thereafter admit any elector into the polling station.
27. As soon as practicable after the closing of the poll the Presiding Officer shall close the slit of the ballot box, seal it up and also allow any polling agent present to affix his seal. The ballot box shall thereafter be sealed and secured.

Counting of Votes: -

28. The counting of votes will be done by the Returning Officer at the place, date and time fixed under Statute 5 of this Statute

Counting to be conducted in the presence of a committee: -

29. The counting shall be conducted in the presence of a committee of three persons appointed by the Kulapati. However, the candidate or his agent will have the right to be present at the counting, provided that by their presence, in the opinion of the Returning Officer, no disturbance is caused in the Counting.

Rejection of Ballot Papers: -

30. The returning Officer shall scrutinize the ballot papers. He shall reject a ballot paper:
- (a) on which the figure I is not marked, or
 - (b) on which figure I is set opposite the name of more than one candidate or is so placed as to render it doubtful to which candidate the preference is intended to apply; or
 - (c) on which the figure I and some other figure or figures are set opposite the name of the same candidate; or
 - (d) if it is unmarked or void for uncertainty; or
 - (e) if it is signed by the elector.

Counting Procedure: -

31. (1) All ballot papers rejected will be kept separately and the remaining ballot papers shall be divided into parcels according to the first preference recorded for each candidate. The Returning Officer shall then count the number of papers in each parcel.
- (2). In carrying out the provisions of paragraphs hereinafter appearing the Returning Officer shall
- (a.) disregard all fractions;
 - (b) ignore all preferences recorded for candidates already elected or excluded from the poll
- (3) For the purpose of facilitating the processes prescribed by the Statutes hereinafter contained, each valid ballot paper shall be deemed to be of the value of one hundred.

Ascertainment of Quota: -

32. The Registrar shall add together the values of the papers in all parcels and divide the total by a number exceeding by one the number of vacancies to be filled. The result increased by one shall be the number sufficient to secure the return of a candidate, hereinafter, called the Quota.

Candidates with quota declared elected: -

33. If at any time a number of candidates equal to the number of persons to be elected have obtained the quota, such candidate shall be treated as elected and no further steps shall be taken.

Transfer of surplus:-

34. (1) Any candidate, the value of whose parcel, on the first preference being counted, is equal to or greater than the quota, shall be declared elected.
- (2) If the value of the papers in any such parcel is equal to the quota, the paper shall be set aside as finally dealt with.
- (3) If the value of the papers in any such parcel is greater than the quota, the surplus shall be transferred to the continuing candidates indicated on the ballot papers as next in the order of the voter's preference, in the manner prescribed in the following Statute.
35. (1) If and whichever, as the result of any operation prescribed by this Statute, a candidate has a surplus; that surplus shall be transferred in accordance with the provision of this Statute.
- (2) If more than one candidate has a surplus the largest surplus shall be dealt with first and the others in order of magnitude, provided that every surplus arising on the first count of votes shall be dealt with before those arising on the second count, and so on.
- (3) Where two or more surpluses are equal, the Registrar shall decide, as here-in-after provided in Statute 39 of this Statute which shall be dealt with first.
- (4) (a) If the surplus of any candidate to be transferred arises from original votes only, The Registrar shall examine all the papers in the parcel belonging to the candidate whose surplus is to be transferred and divide the unexhausted papers into sub-parcels according to the next preferences recorded thereon. He shall also make a separate sub-paragraph of the exhausted papers.
- (b) He shall ascertain the value of the papers in each sub-paragraph and of the unexhausted papers.
- (c.) If the value of the unexhausted papers is equal to or less than the surplus he shall transfer all the unexhausted papers at the value at which they were received by the candidate whose' surplus is being transferred.
- (d) If the value of the unexhausted papers is greater than the surplus, he shall transfer the sub- paragraph of unexhausted and the value. At which each paper shall be transferred, shall be ascertained by dividing the surplus by the total number of unexhausted papers.
- (5) If the surplus of any candidate to be transferred arises from transferred as well as original votes, the Registrar shall re- examine all the papers in the sub-paragraph last transferred to the candidate and divide the unexhausted papers into sub-parcels according to the next preferences recorded thereon. He shall thereupon deal with the sub-parcels in the same manner as is provided in the case of the sub-parcels referred to in sub-statute (4) of this Statute.
- (6) The papers transferred to each candidate shall be added in the form of the sub-paragraph to the papers already belonging to such candidate.
- (7) All papers in the parcel or sub-paragraph of an elected candidate not transferred under this Statute shall be set aside as finally dealt with.

Exclusion from the Poll: -

36. (1) If after all the surpluses have been transferred as hereinbefore directed, less than the number of candidates required has been elected, the Registrar shall exclude from the poll the candidate lowest on the poll and shall distribute his unexhausted papers among the continuing candidates according to the next preference recorded thereon. Any exhausted papers shall be set aside as finally dealt with.
- (2) The papers containing original votes of an excluded candidate shall first be transferred. The transfer value of each paper shall be one hundred.
- (3) The papers containing transferred votes of an excluded candidate shall then be transferred in the order of the transfers in which and at the value at which he obtained them.
- (4) Each of such transfer shall be deemed to be a separate transfer but not a separate count.
- (5) The process directed by this paragraph shall be repeated on the successive exclusions one after another of the candidates lowest on the poll, until the last vacancy is filled either by the election of a candidate within the quota or as hereinafter provided.
- (6) If as the result of transfer of papers under this Statute, the value of the votes obtained by a candidate is equal to or greater than the quota, the transfer then proceeding shall be completed, but no further papers shall be transferred to him.

Declaration of elected candidates:-

37. (1) If, after the completion of any transfer under this Statute, the value of the votes of any candidate be equal to or greater than the quota, he shall be declared elected.
- (2) If the value of the votes of any such candidate be equal to the quota, the whole of the papers on which votes are recorded shall be set aside as finally dealt with.
- (3) If the value of votes of any such candidate be greater than the quota, his surplus shall thereupon be distributed in the manner hereinafter provided, before the exclusion of any other candidate.
38. (1) when the number of continuing candidate is reduced to the number of vacancies remaining unfilled, the continuing candidates shall be declared elected
- (2) When only one vacancy remains unfilled and the value of the votes of someone continuing candidate exceeds the total value of all the votes of the other continuing candidates, together with any surplus not transferred, that candidate shall be declared elected.
- (3) When only one vacancy remains unfilled and there are only two continuing candidates, and those two candidates have each the same value of votes and no surplus remains capable of transfer, one candidate shall be declared excluded under the next succeeding Statute, and the other declared elected

Lot to be drawn for exclusion: -

39. If when there is more than one surplus to distribute, two or more surpluses are equal, or if at any time it becomes necessary to exclude a candidate and two or more candidates have the same value of votes and are lowest on the poll, regard shall be given to the original votes of each candidate, and the candidate for whom fewest original votes are recoded shall have his surplus first distributed or shall be first excluded, as the case may be. If the values of their original votes are equal, the Registrar shall decide by lot which candidate shall have his surplus distributed or be excluded.

Re-counting: -

- 40 (1) Any candidate or, in his absence, his Polling Agent may, at any time during the counting of the votes, either before the commencement or after the completion of any transfer of votes (whether surplus or otherwise) requests the Registrar to re-examine and re-count the papers of all or any candidate (not being papers set aside at any previous transfer as finally dealt with), and the Registrar shall forthwith re-examine and re-count the same accordingly.
- (2) The Registrar in his discretion may re-count the votes either once or more than once in any case in which he is not satisfied as to the accuracy of any previous count:

Provided that nothing in this sub-Para shall make it obligatory on the Registrar to re-count the same votes more than once. .

Election Petition: -

41. An election petition against any returned candidate may be presented to the Kulapati by any candidate or elector or his agent authorized in that behalf within fifteen days from the date of the publication of the result of the election on the Notice Board of the University. The Kulapati's order on the petition shall be final.

Kulpati Final Authority for interpretation.

42. If any question arises as to the interpretation of this Statute it shall be referred to the Kulpati for decision and the decision taken by the Kulpati shall be final and binding
